Disclaimers

Wood: Wood species in all finishes will exhibit color changes when exposed to different types of light and environments over time. Such color changes are expected in Hampton Bay Designer Series cabinets, and are not defects. Graining differences, mineral streaks and color variations are expected in wood cabinetry. Hampton Bay Designer Series door styles often exhibit these characteristics and such graining differences, mineral streaks or color variations are not defects.

Maple: Maple wood inherently has a characteristic known as "birdseye" or "fiddleback" pattern in the wood. When finished, it can have the appearance of a varied sheen, a splotchy appearance, or satiny look. This is the beauty of real maple and not a defect. In most cases it takes on a very pleasant look. Mineral streaks are common and may appear darker when stained.

Paint: All wood cabinets will expand and contract due to temperature, humidity and other environmental factors. Due to such expansion and contraction, an open joint line in a painted finish is not considered a defect, whether it appears upon arrival or over time. Generally, the finish will still protect the surface and the structural integrity of the joint will not be affected. Wood may expand and contract differently from cabinet to cabinet. Even joints within the same cabinet may behave differently. Some joined wood may not show any joint lines, others may be slightly visible, while others may display easily visible joint lines. Since doors and drawers are opened and closed thousands of times, joint lines may occur due to the repeated impacts of everyday use.

Preventing Heat and/or Humidity Damage

Various cooking ovens, ranges, cook tops, cooking pots, toasters and other small appliances produce high heat and/or humidity. It is very important to make sure these products are positioned so rising heat is not trapped or confined, otherwise, you risk damage to cabinets or moldings that is not covered under the warranty. In addition, if higher temperature settings are used for extended periods of time, the radiant heat may be excessive and the doors and drawer fronts should be shielded or removed. This is particularly important on Thermofoil doors, which cannot be exposed to extended temperatures beyond 160 degrees without risking permanent damage. We recommend the use of a heat deflector (AMHD-page 60) for Thermofoil kitchen installations.

Limited Lifetime Warranty

This warranty covers substantial defects in materials and workmanship in your Hampton Bay Designer Series Kitchen products under normal home use. This warranty is offered only to the original consumer purchaser and may not be transferred.

The coverage of this warranty lasts for the lifetime of the original purchaser, so long as he or she owns the home in which the product was first installed.

What This Warranty Covers: RSI Home Products, Inc. ("RSI") warrants its parts and products to be free of substantial defects in materials and workmanship from the original date of purchase under normal home use. This warranty is offered to the original consumer purchaser only and may not be transferred.

How Long The Warranty Lasts: Coverage for all Kitchen Cabinets and Accessories lasts for the life of the product.

What RSI Home Products Will Do Under The Warranty: During the warranty period, RSI, at its option, will repair or replace any part or product that proves to have substantial defects in materials or workmanship, or RSI will provide an equivalent replacement product. In keeping with our policy of continuous product improvement, RSI reserves the right to change specifications in design and materials without notice and with no obligation to retrofit products we previously manufactured.

How State Law Applies: This warranty gives you specific legal rights, and you may also have other rights that vary from state to state.

Implied Warranties: RSI disclaims any implied warranty of merchantability, and there are no warranties that extend beyond the descriptions on the face hereof. To the extent that such disclaimer is not valid under applicable law, any implied warranty shall be coextensive in duration with this warranty.

Hand Carving, Wood, Aging And Printing Limitations: Because of the varying natural characteristics of wood and the effects of aging, product shown in displays and/or printed materials will not be an exact match to new cabinetry you will receive. Depending on the wood characteristics, the age of a sample and the environment of the showroom, samples will show some degree of variation from new product. In addition, you should not expect all doors, drawer fronts, trim or molding to match exactly in either finish or grain. Variation in wood is normal and unavoidable. In addition, it is not possible to match our colors exactly in printed materials. Therefore, you should view the actual samples when making your color selection. Slight variation in size and design is also characteristic of individually hand carved items. This variation can occur from carving to carving, which only adds to their uniqueness and beauty.

What This Warranty Does Not Cover: This warranty does not cover any problems or damage which result from improper transportation, improper installation, mishandling, misuse, abuse, neglect, abnormal use, commercial use, improper maintenance, non-RSI repairs, accidents, or acts of God, such as hurricanes, fire, earthquakes or floods. This warranty, and any applicable implied warranties, does not cover incidental or consequential damages arising from any defects in the product, such as labor charges for installation or removal of the product or any associated products. This warranty does not cover defects or damage caused by normal wear and tear, alterations, environmental conditions, humidity absorption, or mold. In addition, variations in hand carved items, wood grain, finish color, aging or other natural wood and stain characteristics are not considered defects and are not covered by this warranty. Some states do not allow the exclusion or limitation of incidental or consequential damages, so the above limitation or exclusion may not apply to you.
